Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That our Senators in Congress be instructed and our Representatives requested to favor the immediate admission of Kansas into the Uuion, according to the recom-mendations of the President in his message of the 2d instant, upon an equal footing with the other States of the Union.

Resolved, That the dominant division of the people of the Territory of Kansas having elected Governor and other State officers, together with legislature, according to the provisions of the Lecompton Constitution, pledged to organize the Government as soon as admitted into the Union under said Constitution, and therefore provide for the calling of a Convention to amend or reconstruct said Constitution in accordance with the will of the people of said State. It is obvi-ous that the immediate admission of the State will terminate all external agitation, and, in a people; whereas the refusal to admit the State as ow proposed, would certainly increase the excitement and prolong agitation, which must be attended with serious evils, and might terminate in results which every patriot would deplore. AFFAIRS ON THE MEXICAN FRONTIER .-- A COTTES. ondent of the Pennsylvania Inquirer, writing from Brownsville, Texas, says, Matamoras, of the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, opposit Brownsville, has pronounced against Contonfort and his government. In this movement, Tamaulipas is supported by New Leon, Coahuila, and San Luis, and as the interests of all these States are opposed to the high tariff which has been en deavored to be enforced on this frontier, I have no doubt they will be strongly united in any action they may take in this matter. You are probably aware that the tariff laws of Mexico have always been a dead letter on this frontier, it being the practice to introduce goods into the interior, no according to the legal duties, but by arrange-

If, for instance, a merchant desires to pass, say $20,000 worth of goods, he asks the officer of the customs what he will charge for the permission. customs what he will energe for the permission. He may perhaps tell him $2,000. The merchant will demur to this, but will give $1,000, or keep his goods on his side. After some haggling, a bargain is made, and a permit is made out in bargain is made, and a permit is made out in proper form, so as to pass muster with all the government officials that may be met en route. The question as to what are the legal duties on the kind of goods to be introduced, does not enter in to discussion. It is well known that the inerchants on this side of the river evade the duties, each one making the best bargain he can for himself. A pronunciamento is often so quiet a thing that outsiders can hardly realize that any impor-tant political change has taken place. It is all managed by a few leading and influential per-sons, and so quietly that the great mass of the people know nothing of it. A lew merchants, with a few thousands, who enter into the matter as a speculation, and one or two military aspirants can regulate the whole matter to suit themselves. In the present movement at Matamoras, at the head of which is Col. Garcia, the military commandant, the great obstacle in the way of collect ng men and arms in support of the party, is the want of money.

As the people were paid nothing in the last revolution under Vidaurri and Gazza, they decline serving again unless paid for former services. In the meantime trade continues, and our merchants ell large amounts to Mexican traders, who pa in silver coin or bullion. The mines of Mexico within reach of the Rio Grande, are at preser mostly in the hands of Americans, and worked hy American capital. There is, on the score of mutual interest, a very strong feeling on both sides of the river in favor of annexing the country, as iar West as the Sierra Madre, to

Mr. RUSSELL moved to strike out the clause appropriating $19,500 for the purchase of a farm. After a lengthy discussion,

Mr. RUSSELL demanded the yeas and mays, which resulted as follows: safety, mechanical appliances, which if applied with skill overcome the distortions and restore the deformed members to their natural or normal condition. The surgical part of this procedure is simple and easy of execution, but the proper ad justment of the mechanical aperatus requires the greatest care, and perseverance with the most perfect knowledge of the anatomy of the parts

We have recently witnessed a case of the worst form of congenital deformity in both feet, in a youth fourteen years old perfectly restored by the use of mechanical contrivances alone.

The case, after having undergone surgical treatment from several distinguished surgeons without success, was placed under the care of Professor Grant of this place, the well known principal of a high school for boys, and an ingenious practical civil engineer, who, by the ase of mechanical contrivances alone has made one of the most successful cures to be found on re-

Eighteen months ago this youth was placed as a pupil in the school of Professor Grant who undertook, with the consent of the boy's father, to remedy the defect in his feet by the application of shoes ingeniously made and skillfully applied to them. The treatment has been completely successful, the feet not only being straightened, but the youth is now acquiring an easy and graceful gait, SPEED, SAFETY AND COMFORT. with a rapid development of his hitherto withered and distorted lower extremities. The management of the case reflects the highest eredit upon the skill of Professor Grant and the successful issue is an evidence of his skill in

. Mr. Marshall's Lecture.—We regret that the lateness of the hour at which we write prevents us from noticing the lecture of last night as it deserves, if, judeed, that were in our power under modern Europe, and although, in the brief time allotted to him, he was but able to barely touch the leading incidents with the tip of his eagle wing, yet he threw around them a grandeur, splendor, and interest which they had never before possessed for the audience

He administered a scathing rebuke to thein tolerance of Calvin, not, however, attempting to confute the doctrines of the glorious religion of which he was the founder, but rather mentioning his persecution of those who differed with him in faith as an historical truth - He passed in brief review over the reigns of Elizabeth, Mary of Scotland, Henry IV, of France, and passing in graceful transition from an account of the man nerin which that Monarch and Napoleon had be trayed the great trusts confided in them, soared in loftiest flights of glowing eulogy upon the character of our man-the glorious Washington. Mr. Marshall knows well how to stir up all the patriot fires within the great American heart. and nobly and most eloquently did he use his Heaven inspired eloquence when dwelling upon that sublimest of themes. But the highest coin pliment that could possibly be paid to his won drous powers of touching the heart, were the tears that frequently dimmed the sight of his anditors.

He will lecture again to night, and it is expected that his audience will be larger than it has been for the last two nights. The two first leetures were but preludes, as it were, to the symphony of gorgeous Hights of fancy, and display of learning which will greet his audi ors to night. Mr Marshall clothes every thing he handles with the chastest beauty of thought, and purity of expression. In the three lectures he will have had hardly room for the expansion of his gre t in tellect, and we trust that he may be induced to remain some time longer among us. Let every one turn out this evening and offer an induce ment to him to deliver the cutire course in our little eitv.

JOHN MITCHELL ON NATURALIZATION .- The great truths in reference to the necessity for : modification of our naturalization laws, says the Lonisville Journal, which have been announced by the American party have been treated with scorn and ridicule by the Democracy. But silently and surely, in spite of the opposition to them, they have forced themselves upon the convictions of sensible and thinking men of all parties. Democratic leaders and demagogues may succeed for a time in exciting prejudice against the American organization but all their sophistry and disgraceful assertions of the superiority of ed to land. he foreign over the native citizen are unavailing o hide from the popular understanding the unde ninhle truth and justice and patriotism of American principles, or to crush out from the popular heart a love for the maxims inculcated by the American party. The proscriptive spirit of the Democracy-a proscription more tyrannical than ever was conceived by the most wily and despotic chief of the Jesuits-teaches the masses of the Democratic party to turn a deaf ear to every argument attered by an American speaker, and to dishelieve anything however palpably true, that may he published in an American newspaper .-The sachems of Democracy are prinfully conscious that, wherever the principles of the American party are understood by the masses, their truth and justice and the necessity for their adoption as the permanent policy of the Government will be at once acknowledged. These reckless, rule or ruin Democratic leaders know full well that if the veil of misrepresentation, with which they have sought to hide from the popular gaze the glory of the principles of the American party, undimmed upon the minds and hearts of the peoplc, the power of the Democracy would immediately be dissolved and the masses of the Ameri can people would rush with enthusiasm into the ranks of the American party, and accord an eager and active support to its principles.

While the Democracy generally have thus studiously endeavored to conceal the truth from the masses of their followers, the following gleam of truth in the columns of a Democratic paper should to the attention of those who have reviled the world. American party and denounced its efforts to protect the institutions of our country from the fa usal of every American and Democrat in the ism and crime. It is from the hold and vigorous beam of sunshine, stealing into a lazar-house." pen of John Mitchell, editor of the Southern Cit. It is a plain acknowledgment of the truth of the ralized, a violent Democrat in politics, and the American party. It exhibits in a strong and cannot be accused of national or party prejudi- truthful light the palpable defects of our na ces in favor of the American views of the sub turalization laws, and points out the necessity for for the Democratic party in the United States (to which party we give our hearty faith and fealty) hold it to be one of their strong points to cherish and tenderly entreat "the foreigner." Yet there are certain considerations aside from party, which lead to the conclusion that something is cause he is sure to run when exposed to fire.

that, even in the Know-Nothing ranks, there were patriotic and good men who had no sympathy in leed with the benighted sectarianism of that mis chievous society, but who, nevertheless, instinct vely revolted against the eool insolence of Ea ropean powers in chasing "surplus population" to America as a penal colony. Of criminals and paupers we have enough.

Of the emigrants to America, a very large number are paupers and criminals, which falls out in several ways: First, there are emigration ocieties having funds provided for carrying to America the very sweepings of the work houses and poor houses. Some of these are in connec ion with the governments of the several counadd or New York. If in Canada most of them find their way southward. These have neither means, nor soirit, nor hope. They the bidding of their "betters," and emigrated in forma paupers. These are true paupers—either born paupers or having the heart and soul within them, ground down to a paper heavy and soul within them, ground down to a paper heavy and the first true paupers or having the heart and soul within them, ground down to a paper heavy and the first true paper having the American people to realize the first true paper having the first true problem. them, ground down to a panper heart and soul within them, ground down to a panper heart and soul by bitter oppression and privation—not fit to be that any portion of them should be in a state of ritory perfectly free' in framing their constitution to form and regulate their domestic institutions. itizens of any country

And for criminals-we know that cargoes of It dians and Germans are sometimes sent over with an intimation that they are "political of enders." Who knows that they are political offenders? Their govern ents at any rate are at least call them political offenders; but they may be forcats three times convicted for the worst human crimes. If so, they will not them selves let out the secret. The wonderful organization of the police establishments in European countries is little understood here. Every ruffian, deserves, if, iudeed, that were in our power under any circumstances. The lecturer reviewed some of the most interesting epochs in the history of modern Europe, and although, in the brief time deserves, if, iudeed, that were in our power under some interesting erion Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher, cut throat in Paris or in Naples is well-burgher. an make them an offer once for all that if they could save themselves from the galleys or gal lows, they shall have a free passage to a land of liberty as Corbonur or Red Republicans.

But there is one more, direct, constant, and opious flow of criminals into this country from ne English colonies. Bermada fies nearly op-osite to Charleston, about seven hundred miles off Here are always confined upwards of two thousand of the choicest miscreants in all creation—accomplished London house-breakers, bank robbers, forgers, garoters. Their numbers are kept up by new importations from England; but as the terms of their sentences r spectfully expire, what is done with them? The laws of he colony prohibit them from being set free within the islands. The very last thing the govern ment would think of, is to bring them back to

Now Bernauda has a constant traffic with the coast cities of America. It has no wheat or other grain, no beef, and no mutton save what it imports from America. Therefore its waters are always full of American vessels. In these the criminals are regularly shipped as they become entitled to their freedom, sometimes as many as four or five in the same vessel. Their cassage is paid by the English government, and ey carry their virtue and accomplishments to ive strength and glory to the great Republic. That this was a practice a few years ago, is a matter of fact, which we assert; presumably it so still And although the transaction is al ways a secret one, no doubt researches amongs the owners of coasting vessels in Philadelphia and Baltimore would bring to light the fact, if

And it is singular that the largest traffic of Bermuda is (or was) with the city of Baltimore. Undoubtedly the flash-clubs are largely recruited Those fellows are the very men to make good Roughskins and Blood-Tubs.

On the other side of the continent, San Franisco has been receiving a picked emigration rom the Australian penal colonies—alumni who have graduated in the great Universities of rascal

Unquestionably the citizens of America arc njured by these importations of criminals and ties where the Republican party have a majority mapers; and the adopted citizens even more Lawrence is the hot bed of all Abolition move than the native; because their character suffers It cannot surely be desirable for them that the same door which is open to them and their children should admit, on the same footing and on he same terms, the oll scourings of French galeys, the refuse of Irish poor-houses, and the offal of English goals. They do not need to import secundrelism, laziness, and ignorance along with them, inasmuch as they will find plenty of all that

It has become the direct and deep interest of both native and adopted (especially the latter) to procure such a change in the naturalization laws as will prevent the very loose and irregula admission of all applicants, and in all kind courts of record. And further, we submit that it is not enough to prevent criminals and paupers the Republican party of this Territory, instigated, it to their interest to patronize us. Ship car tains who bring such passengers ought to be brought to condign punishment, and the Govern ment which continues such a practice ought to be regarded as our worst enemy.

We have no intention in this article of sug resting special changes of the naturalization aws. Five years give more than time enough o grow familiar with an affair so simple as th American Laws and Constitution-that is to say as familiar as the average of natives-and as familiar as is needful to make a good citizen.-The man who does not know enough of it in five years will never know. In short, the present naturalization laws, if strictly administered, may be sufficient. But they are notoriously administered most loosely and inefficiently. The courts which give an in should ever be drawn aside and the plain truth of tended citizen his papers, often give him infor these precepts should be allowed to shine forth mal and insufficient papers, so that he cannot some are kept from voting who have a right to vote. Many others are admitted who never ought to be—and evidence is taken of an applicant's fitness for the duties of an American citizen and for his attachment to the American Constitution, from the mouth of aliens, who perhaps never saw American before that day. On the whole there is a conditional before that day. On the whole there is a conditional before that day. On the whole there is a conditional before that day. On the whole there is a conditional before that day. On the whole there is a conditional before that day. On the whole there is a conditional before that day. On the whole there is a conditional before the conditional fitness for the duties of an American citizen and for his attachment to the American Constitution, a fatal facility even for the honest and bona fide emigrant. And when, besides this, you consider, the immense infusion of pauperism and crime, it will become apparent that the United States is in danger of being made the common alms-house be spread far and wide, and everywhere brought refugium peccatorium, and penal colony of the
